RE: NSTAR Companies D.T.E. 03-121

Dear Mr. Stevens:

At the pre-hearing conference on April 22, 2004, you reviewed for the record the entities which sought to participate in M.D.T.E 03-121 through the Joint Supporters. I reviewed initial intervention correspondence and believe several of its members were not included in the list during the pre-hearing conference. To ensure the record is accurate, I set forward below the members of the Joint Supporters and the correspondence dates for your reference.

On February 13, 2004, Piper Rudnick, LLP filed an Appearance of Counsel on behalf of the Joint Supporters and a reply to NSTAR's Response to Petitions to Intervene.<sup>1</sup> That correspondence included a description of the interests of the Joint Supporters' members and the status each member sought. The corresponding Appearance of Counsel for those parties was stamped granted on February 23, 2004.

The Applicants for Intervention as Parties in that correspondence included the following:

Co-Energy America, Inc
National Association of Energy Service Companies, Inc.
Siemens Building Technologies District One

---

<sup>1</sup> Petitions for Leave to Intervene were due on February 3, 2004. E-Cubed was granted an extension of time until February 13, 2004 to hire counsel and clarify its intervention petition. Therefore, no action was taken on E Cubed's initial petition to intervene in the Hearing Examiner's Ruling On Petitions for Leave to Intervene dated February 13, 2004. See, Footnote 2, Ruling On Petitions for Leave to Intervene dated February 13, 2004.

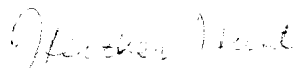

The Applicants for Limited Intervention in that correspondence included the following:

The E Cubed Company, LLC
Predicate, LLC
Energy Concepts Engineering, PC
Dgsolutions, LLC
Allied Utility Network, LLC
Pace Law School Energy Project

Additionally, on February 20, 2004, Piper Rudnick, LLP filed a letter indicating that the Boston Public Schools should have been included in the Joint Supporters and noted that it would be specifically and substantially affected by the proposed rates. That was stamped granted on February 23, 2004.

Thank you for attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Heather Hunt
